NEWS FROM CALEXICO

MRS. GOODE WRITES OF SON IN FRANCE AND OF FARMING IN THE IMPERIAL

Mr. D. E. Goode of Calexico, a former and much beloved resident of Glendale, who was an active and valued member of the Tuesday afternoon Club and several other organizations, writes that she is recovering nicely from the slight "stroke" she suffered a few weeks ago which affected her left arm. She has been out to two Red Cross meetings lately and expects soon to be her normal self. Her daughter, Mrs. Will Livingston, and the two little Livingston boys are with Mr. and Mrs. Goode. Mr. Livingston, who voluntarily enlisted, is with the aviation corps at Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Goode writes that she has received lately several letters from her son, Donald Goode, now in France, who did not get mail for a good many weeks after crossing the water, but who writes that the letters finally arrived and he received twelve in one day, a red letter day in which he was the happiest boy in France. He is in the medical department of the camp infirmary. Donald writes: "Enthusiasts may have all of sunny France and all the rest of it they like, but give me good old Sunny California." He also writes: "The air raids are so common that we seldom stop to watch them, but sometimes they come too close for comfort. "

"Of crops in the Imperial Valley Mrs. Goode says: "As usual, everyone here is expecting great things for the coming year. If the rancher raises nothing else he usually has a bumper crop of hope. Mr. Goode is getting ready to irrigate his cotton. Farmers are cutting barley and alfalfa for hay."

Of her friends here she says: "It gives me a warm feeling in my heart to know that the friends still remember me. It is my dream to some day come back."

QUAINT OLD PAPER

PENNSYLVANIA PACKET OF JULY 17, 1787, OWNED BY R. D. GOSS OF GLENDALE

Two interesting papers, one the National Tribune of Washington, dated May 20th, 1915, and the other a very ancient and yellow printed document headed "The Pennsylvania Packet and Daily Advertiser, Tuesday, July 17, 1787, have been left at this office by R. D. Goss of 708 W. Fifth street. It is very English in character, with the old-fashioned "s" much used. The first page is given up to the advertisements, chiefly of cargoes of merchandise. One merchant, for example, advertises a large assortment of fine and coarse muslins, also Lisbon wine by the quarter-cask of the best quality, etc. In another advertisement a sixpence reward is offered for the return of "an indented servant girl named Elizabeth Jenkins, American born, about 13 years of age who has a remarkable down look, black coarse hair, is a very artful lying girl, and if examined can form a plausible excuse. As she has run away several times heretofore, it is suspected that she is harboured in the city or suburbs, as she has been since she ran away last."

In another advertisement three pounds reward is offered for the return of a servant man who calls himself "sometimes Darby and sometimes Jeremiah Kean."

Still another "Subscriber" advertises for a sloop "supposed to be run away with from the northwest end of Porto Rico, burden about thirty hogsheads of tobacco, belonging to St. Thomas." Then follows a minute description of her officers and sailors with biographical information concerning them, and data in regard to cargo and finally the name of a passenger, Thomas Bennet, with a white maid servant from the Cape. "As the Captain has not arrived with the vessel, it is justly concluded that he has gone to some part of America, viz. Providence, Georgia, Charleston, Baltimore, North Carolina; from the last of which he came, as he often mentioned being well acquainted near Edinton and Scupper Long. Should the above appear at any port under any pretense whatever, it is requested that justice may take place and bring the offender or offenders to such punishment as may be found adequate to the crime."

Still another advertises four or more plantations ranging in size from 750 to 1800 acres each, well watered, with dwellings and farm buildings, apple and peach orchards, timber, grist mills and other valuable considerations, offering to "take in payment for the above lands or any part thereof, cash, tobacco or likely young negroes and will deal on reasonable terms."

Across the bottom of the last page is the following announcement of the publishers:

PHILADELPHIA: Printed and sold by John Dunlap and David C. Claypoole, on the South side of Market street the third house east of Second street, where Subscriptions, Advertisements, &c for this Paper are thankfully received, and PRINTING in its different branches is done with Care, Elegance and Expedition—Subscribers to this Paper (in the city) are served with it at their houses early every Morning and those at a distance by the quickest Conveyance.

CORONER'S INQUEST

Mrs. Lelita Barsena, who was struck by a Montrose car Monday evening on Glendale avenue near the Ross Packing House, died from her injuries Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Glendale Sanitarium. The remains were taken to the Jewel City Undertaking parlors on Brand boulevard and an inquest will be held today, Wednesday, at 2 o'clock, which will be conducted by County Coroner Hartwell.

Mrs. Barsena was 53 years of age and made her home at 406 Cedar street, this city, with a daughter and son-in-law. One of her grandchildren was with her when she met the injuries which resulted in her death, but the child was not seriously hurt.

ACREAGE SOLD

F. McG. Kelley has sold the 7½ acres which he owned on Tenth street near the home of L. C. Brand, to W. B. Scott of Los Angeles, who made the purchase as an investment. Mr. Kelley has bought the lot next to his present place of business at 422 Brand boulevard and will erect there an up-to-date floral establishment when business conditions warrant.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Thursday. Westerly winds.

BATTLE RAGES ABOUT YPRES

VIRGIN LEANING FROM WINDOW OF CHURCH AT ALBERT SINCE 1914 HAS FALLEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

(By William Philip Simms, United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, April 17.—The Germans are continuing their drive toward Hazebrouck but are suffering heavy losses. Apparently the only enemy gain in the last twenty-four hours has been at Wytschaete.

British troops are now advancing against Wytschaete and will probably retake it.

South of Ypres an attempt was made by the enemy to advance but was frustrated. In retiring both flanks of the German line were caught by the full force of British artillery and machine guns.

From an elevation north of Bailleul I watched the battle rage throughout the afternoon. The British tore great holes in the German divisions advancing from the northeast. The British line seemed intact.

The famous Virgin leaning from the church tower at Albert has been destroyed.

The figure has been overhanging the street since 1914 when the city was shelled by the Germans.

There is a widespread superstition that when the Virgin holding the figure of the infant Jesus should fall peace would be declared.

BRITISH WITHDRAW EAST OF YPRES

NEW POSITIONS ARE TAKEN DELIBERATELY WITHOUT INTERFERENCE FROM ENEMY, HAIG REPORTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, April 17.—East of Ypres, in consequence of enemy progress along the Lys, British troops holding forward positions have withdrawn to a new line, deliberately and without any interference from the enemy, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

"South of Arras and opposite Boyelles, seven miles south of Arras, our line is completely restored. In the neighborhood of Wytschaete yesterday evening we successfully counter attacked. In Meterin the situation is also restored and the British troops have recaptured that city.

"South of the Somme hostile artillery firing increased considerably this morning.

"An advancing enemy party was caught under our fire east of Ypres at our old position and completely destroyed.

At Bailleul a party of Germans in close infantry formation was caught by our fire and suffered severe casualties. We took some prisoners.

"The enemy endeavored to develop an attack east of Robecq, but their advance was broken up."

SUCCESSOR FOR CZERNIN

BARON RAJACZ, FORMER AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN FOREIGN MINISTER, AGAIN APPOINTED TO THAT OFFICE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

AMSTERDAM, April 17.—Baron Stephen von Rajacz, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has been appointed to that position to succeed Count Czernin.

Czernin, on account of his alleged peace inclinations, was out of favor with the military party and recently resigned.

REPORTS REGISTRATION MEASURE

MILITARY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE REPORTS ON SENATE RESOLUTION AFTER LONG DEBATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The House Military Affairs committee after long debate reported to the House today the Senate resolution providing for the registration of all men who have become 21 since June 5, last.

CONSIDER SPY MEASURE

SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN BILL WOULD TURN ENEMY PROPAGANDISTS OVER TO MILITARY AUTHORITIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—To show the need for a drastic law to stamp out German propaganda, the Senate Military committee today began the hearing of Senator Chamberlain's bill which provides for turning over spies and enemy propagandists to the military authorities.

The civil authorities of a number of states will tell how many enemy propagandists have escaped the courts through laxity, bail jumping, etc.

There is much opposition developing against Senator Chamberlain's measure.

BOLO PASHA EXECUTED

PARIS, April 17.—Details of Bolo Pasha's execution as a traitor became known today.

The execution took place this morning by a firing squad of twelve volunteers.

Bolo asked to have his eyes bandaged and appeared very weak.

NEEDLEWOMEN WANTED

CONSERVATION DEPARTMENT IS SWAMPED WTH MATERALS AND NEEDS WORKERS

The evolution of the Conservation Department of the Red Cross has begun. The store formerly occupied by Frank Booth as a coffee emporium on Broadway is to be fitted up as a sewing room with machines and other necessary equipment, where women who are willing to come and sew will be made most welcome. The original quarters opposite the fire house will be retained and there garments will be received, sorted, ripped and made ready for the needlewomen. These quarters too are coming up as far as equipment is concerned. Tables have been badly needed for some time, but J. B. McClellan of 318 South Central avenue has come to the rescue and persuaded a few other men to join with him in providing six long, strong tables which will be exceedingly useful in the big work of looking over and sorting the garments brought in weekly from the salvage drives. A large number of cartons have been secured in which the different classes of materials are assembled for the convenience of workers.

The committee is also rejoicing over the receipt of an oak washstand with drawers, which is very useful and which was brought to headquarters from some unknown donor by Mr. Merrick, the transfer man. And this is not all. The committee has also received several very welcome trunks in respones to the appeal published in this paper. Its chief need now is for chairs, and any one possessing superfluous sittings of that sort can find at the Conservation Headquarters an asylum where they will be put to service in the cause of humanity.

Women who can handle a needle are badly needed in this department of war work, in which there are no red tape regulations to be followed as to the width of seams, etc., as in the hospital garment department, and there is an unusual opportunity in this conservation work to exercise creative gifts and ingenuity in making something out of nothing. Most of the work is for destitute children of the war-scarred countries, and it should appeal strongly to the mothers of Glendale.

LOST SOLDIER FOUND

The local Board of exemptions has spent considerable time unraveling a snarl in the record of Chase S. Story, a registrant sent from this district to Camp Rockwell on March 8th. After a large amount of correspondence with officials high and low, it is back where it started. Shortly after he was entrained the board had occasion to write him, and of course addressed him at Rockwell Field. The letter was returned marked "not at North Island." The board at once got busy and wrote the Adjutant, who responded with the information that although he had a record of his induction the man had not appeared. Like good officials, the board then communicated the facts as set forth in the correspondence to the Adjutant General, who promptly gave orders for the arrest of the man as soon as found. Today the board has a letter from Rockwell Field stating that Chase S. Story was accepted there three days after he entrained here.

It would seem that competent clerical work on camp records is as badly needed as it is in Washington.

LIBERTY LOAN PARADE

This afternoon, Wednesday, the first presentation of the moving picture of Glendale's Liberty Loan parade will be made on the screen at the Palace Grand. It will be repeated at night and at the two performances on Thursday and Friday.

It is certain that every soul who took part in that patriotic demonstration, big and little, will want to see how it looked. Being a part of it, they had no chance to witness its glorious ensemble, and it is therefore safe to predict that big audiences will be seen at the Palace Grand on the three days mentioned. Nothing that Messrs. Jensen have done since they located their big playhouse in this city has given more genuine satisfaction than this bit of enterprise on their part in making a film of the pretty spectacle which staged its patriotic appeal on the streets of Glendale, and it is probable that they will be well repaid. They expect to use the film in their other theatres and may loan it for the use of campaign committees elsewhere who are working to arouse enthusiasm for the Liberty Loan.

NATIONAL CONSCIENCE

DR. EDGAR FAY DAUGHERTY APPEALED TO IT IN ELOQUENT PATRIOTIC ADDRESS

The audience which greeted Dr. Edgar Fay Daugherty, pastor of the First Christian Church of Los Angeles, who spoke Tuesday evening in the High School Auditorium in the interest of the Liberty Loan and for the stimulation of patriotism in general, was enthusiastic in its response to his eloquent presentation of American sentiments and ideals.

The meeting was called to order by Vice-Chairman A. L. Lawshe, who is an old friend of Mr. Daugherty and through whom he was persuaded to come to Glendale.

"Conscience" was the theme of Mr. Daugherty's address, in which he demonstrated how necessary to a worthy life is a sound and active conscience, and then applied the same thought to the life of nations, declaring: "The nation that lacks a conscience is decadent and is on the road to disintegration."

He took the ground that the United States has not properly assimilated the foreign elements which have come to its shores to make up the democracy of which we have boasted, that they have not blended in such a manner as to make of us a powerful unit. He asserted that the Kaiser had counted on that fact as an element in his favor, viz., that we were a loosely knit aggregation of many nationalities, and when giving to Ambassador Gerard his passports boasted that in the United States, subject to his command, were 500,000 German-Americans who would frustrate any attempt which the American government might make to go to the relief of the Allies. In Mr. Daugherty's opinion we have not demanded enough of these foreigners to whom we have given an asylum nor sufficiently sought to make Americans of them. "If within five years a man coming from abroad can not master the English language, he should be back to the woods whence he came," he declared, and the audience applauded the declaration.

"Conscence," he declared, "is simply the word 'ought.' It is the supreme dictator in every soul and in the soul of the nation. America has waked up to what it 'ought' to do," he affirmed, and his opinion of the outcome he expressed when he said:

"Our hearts may be solemnized when we consider the situation on the western front and realize that it is the aim of the Hun army to crush and utterly annihilate the English army; but we know if the British army should be defeated and if the French army should be defeated, there would yet remain between us and the Huns the great English navy and our own navy, and whether it takes five months or five years or twenty-five years, there is going to be no hesitation, and when the full might of the American nation is applied to the task, it will be accomplished in the destructon of Hohenzollernism."

His lecture abounded in crisp,

THRILLING ADDRESS

PROF. SHEDD SAYS KAISER IS DEFENDER OF MOHAMMEDAN FAITH

Prof. Shedd, who lived for many years in Turkey and has a brother there at the present time, made some true and startling statements in an address to a large audience regarding political and religious conditions, and the union of the German and Mohammedan forces in the present war, at the Presbyterian church last night.

Mr. Myers, a graduate from Fiske University in the South, was called back again and again, as he gave folk songs and readings of the negro, and with the eloquence of the South made a brief address on work among the Freedmen and the loyalty of the colored men to their country in the present war.

David Black and James Cooper were in charge of the evening program.

The afternoon session of the Missionary societies was directed by Mrs. Cameron Johnson and went "over the top," and the supper served by the men of the church under the direction of M. P. Harrison and Henry Lawrence was a great success, over a hundred and fifty being present. The men paid for the supper themselves and divided the money taken in from the sale of the tickets at 25 cents each, equally between the two Missionary societies.

The plan of linking up the missionary work of the church with the Communion season promises to be inspiring in every way for the cause.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1918

GLENDALE GARDEN SOCIETY

The Glendale Garden Society held an earnest and successful meeting last week at the home of the president, Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1222 Milford street. The report of Mrs. H. C. Ackley, chairman of the Penny Seed Packet Committee, showed over $40 worth of seeds purchased from the local seedsman and over 4,000 packets of seeds put up and sold to the school children of Glendale.

Report from the chairman of the plant department of the Red Cross Shop showed increasing receipts for the three weeks during which the department has been in operation. Residents of Glendale have contributed willingly plants and flowers from their own yards, and the purchasers are mostly those who are glad to buy what their friends and neighbors have raised. All receipts from this department are handed over to the Red Cross.

Professor C. E. Houdyshel, who has generously offered to donate upwards of $100 worth of bulbs of iris, crinum, gladioli, etc., to the Garden Society, to be sold for benefit of the Red Cross, announced that he is at present engaged in compiling a list of available bulbs with cultural directions. This list will be printed and placed at the disposal of those contemplating a purchase of these fine products of Professor Houdyshel's bulb farm.

A motion to purchase a $50 Liberty Bond was unanimously adopted, C. H. Woolsey and J. H. Woods being appointed a committee to undertake the necessary steps.

The meeting was then adjourned, to meet again on the first Thursday of May at the residence of some member of the Society, place to be announced later.

1c will buy a dollar's worth at Spohr's next week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. 192tf

PATRIOTIC TEA

The regular afternoon tea of the Glendale Branch of the British Ambulance Society will take place next Monday, April 22d, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, at the Jewel City Cafe, corner of Glendale avenue and Broadway. Mrs. B. V. Dawes will be the hostess and will be assisted by Mrs. Hawkins-Ambler, Mrs. Charles Winsel, wife of the Belgian consul at Los Angeles, Miss Margaret Trew and Miss Ina Whitaker.

This will be a typically English afternoon and there will be a very good musical program. Mrs. Willoughby Walker, an English actress, formerly with the D'Oyle Carte Opera Company, will sing twice, accompanied by William Sackett, who will also give a piano selection. Philip Hayman will also sing.

Assisting as maids will be Misses Ruth and Helen Begg, Miss June Huskings and Miss Alice Bornecamp. The proceeds, as usual, will go to the wool fund.

BIDS ALL TOO HIGH

The bids for the new east side school building at Eagle Rock were opened April 1st and were taken under advisement by the school board. The school board found that the bids were all above the appropriation of $7500 and will re-advertise for bids.

If you don't vote you help to elect the other fellow.

NATIONAL CONSCIENCE

forceful declarations of truth with which he nailed home his argument on the moral obligation to support the Liberty Loan, such as:

"Every man can keep his faith who keeps a good conscience. There never was such a bright outlook for a nation that dreams of things as they ought to be and that is not afraid."

"I believe the American nation has come into her salvation. We had been prosperous beyond the dreams of avarice until we were smitten first on one cheek and then the other and in the rear, and came into this period of sacrifice for the flag. This is the thing that is saving America today, and out of this war, no matter how much we may suffer, we will emerge with a better understanding of what it means to be an American citizen than we have ever known before. This contention for things as they ought to be is the stuff that makes our lives worth while.

"Every life counts. That is the meaning of these testing days. Every life must be made to count under the appeal of democracy to devote every resource to the national need."

RED CROSS JOTTINGS

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Secretary and Chairman of Memberships of the Glendale Chapter of the Red Cross, will be at headquarters daily in the morning. She is asking all persons who joined the Red Cross a year ago this month to call at headquarters and renew their membership.

Active workers in the Red Cross are very appreciative of the patriotism shown by Miss Edith Lindsay in offering to give a Red Cross benefit at the Palace Grand. It is to come off Monday evening, May 22d, and several popular young ladies who are renowned for their dancing will take part. The ladies predict that it will be an exceedingly pretty affair and one which no Glendale citizen who appreciates artistic things can afford to miss. The fact that the proceeds will go to the Red Cross should be an added incentive to attend.

LITERARY SECTION

A very interesting meeting of the Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bartlett, the curator. "Letters from a Chinese Official" was reviewed by Mrs. Rowe. Mrs. Ocker read a letter recently received from France relating to war conditions and vividly pointing to vital facts in present conditions. Mrs. McIntyre read an extract from a New York paper dealing with German propaganda.

The main subject for the day was taken up by Mrs. Edgar W. Pack, who gave a comprehensive account of English life previous to and during the opening years of the war. Many personal incidents were related that proved of especial interest to the section.

RED CROSS AUXILIARY

The Red Cross Auxiliary of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet Thursday from 10:30 until 3 at the home of Mrs. Menzo Williams, 1325 North Central avenue. A generous supply of wool for socks has been promised asd members are asked to bring their No. 2 steel seedles. There will also be a supply of sewing materials on hand.

RED CROSS SHIPMENT

The excellent shipment made Tuesday of articles manufactured by workers at the Glendale Chapter of the Red Cross included the following products:

186 absorbent pads 8x12 in. cotton
85 sweaters, sleeveless, olive drab
8 bed jackets
69 pajamas, American, winter
3 prs. bed socks
1 hot water bag cover
10 operating caps
3 operating gowns
45 operating masks
18 bed shirts, summer
2 bed shirts, winter
4 helpless case shirts (taped)
63 helmets
23 mufflers
69 socks for soldiers
6 sweaters
5 pairs wristlets

BETTER FRUIT GRADING

The Vanomar Producers Cannery at Van Nuys is about to adopt a radical change in the grading of apricots and peaches for the coming season, if recommendations of the management are approved by the stockholders.

The proposition, as explained by President C. A. Worthington at the stockholders' meeting, Saturday, and published in the Van Nuys News, is to make three grades for peaches instead of two in making up the pools, and two grades for apricots instead of one.

This is to protect the men bringing to the cannery the best grades of fruit from having their prices lowered by being pooled with inferior quality.

During the past season, under the old and commonly accepted grading, as adopted by co-operative canneries, there was much dissatisfaction.

The greater part of the fruit, owing to the hot spell in June, was poor. Still there was some very good fruit, but in the method of pooling the price of this good fruit was pulled down by the inferior grades.

TEXANS TO CELEBRATE HISTORIC SAN JACINTO DAY

San Jacinto Day was a great event in the annals of the Lone Star State and will ever be remembered by the loyal Texans.

In order properly to observe the anniversary here, the Texas Society will hold a great all-day picnic reunion in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, Saturday, April 27th, to which all former residents of the state are invited.

There will be county headquarters, basket picnic dinners, hot coffee provided, and a jolly good time all day.

The popular program will open about two o'clock, Col. Tom Thornton presiding. Gov. W. P. Hobby of Texas has been invited to deliver an address, and the president, Judge Monta J. Moore, will give the San Jacinto Day oration. There will be patriotic songs and a negro quartette will supply the plantation melodies.

The society expects to entertain about two hundred of the Texas soldier boys who are at Ft. MacArthur.

All Texans in Southern California are urged to take a day off and enjoy the rally.

The poultry building should not be so wide that the rays of the sun can not reach the back of the interior of the house. Otherwise it will be damp. Fourteen feet is a convenient width.

C. L. Peckham left Wednesday morning for Yuma on a business trip.

Miss Mary Gaston, the moving picture star, drove out to Glendale in her big car one day last week and visited Mrs. E. J. Zerr of 413 Cedar street.

Mrs. C. C. Chandler of Cypress avenue, who had quite an illness resulting from an ingrowing toenail, is so far restored that she is almost in normal health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilde of 1331 Milford street spent the week-end in San Diego and while there visited Camp Kearny and took in all the sights of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rattray of 244 South Central aveneu are suffering from ptomaine poisoning resulting from a meal which they ate in a Los Angeles restaurant.

Among Glendale lovers of music who enjoyed the delightful concert given last evening by the Ellis club were Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Miss Annie McIntyre and Mrs. Edgar W. Pack.

Mattison B. Jones, Clem Moore, R. W. Masters and Mark T. Lee are in San Francisco attending the Grand Lodge of Royal Arch Masons of California. They will return to Glendale Friday morning.

Mrs. J. S. Neel, who has been visiting several old friends in Glendale, has returned to her home in La Jolla Last Friday Mrs. C. B. Wilde of 1331 Milford street entertained with a little informal luncheon in her honor, the guest list including Mrs. Ralph Pearson of Los Angeles and Mrs. Gus Pulliam of this city.

The fourteenth birthday of Gladys Chandler Peckham was celebrated Tuesday evening at her home, 245 North Central avenue, when six of her friends were entertained at dinner and spent the evening with games and music. Pink candles illuminated the feast, at which a beautiful birthday cake had a place of honor, and it was an exceedingly pleasant affair for all who participated.

Miss Lois Naudain, the charming little Glendale dancer, is taking a prominent part in the Lindsay Red Cross benefit which will be given at the Palace Grand Theatre April 22d. Other solo dancers are Margaret Brown, Margaret Fox, Barbara Chandler, Charlotte Winsel, Dorothy and Kathleen Woods. A dress rehearsal will take place at the Palace Grand Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday at the church at 2:45 o'clock. Mrs. Lash of Hollywood will be the speaker. At 2 o'clock, preceding the meeting, the Missionary Study Class will meet at the same place. Every lady interested is invited and urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nisbet and their children, Robert and Mary, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nisbet of 1438 Hawthorne street. Mr. Nisbet is working for the Emerson Efficiency Co. of New York City. He came here from Baltimore, Md., where he has been doing special work for the B. & O. R. R. Co. for the past three years.

Mrs. Eva M. Tuft announces that owing to the departure of Miss Ruth Taggart, who has been the instructor on Tuesday in the surgical dressings department, the classes on that day will hereafter be in charge of Mrs. Abby La Gross of 301 North Louise street. Miss Taggart, who has been spending the winter in Glendale, is returning to her home in Indianapolis.

Mrs. McElwain of Somers, Conn., who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. S. S. Bailey, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Prikett, expects to leave for her eastern home the latter part of this week. Mrs. McElwain is not in the best of health and Mrs. Bailey will accompany her on the long journey. They expect to stop in Arkansas en route.

Two sisters-in-law of Mrs. Ben Nichols of this city, viz., Mrs. Fred S. Curtis and Mrs. M. B. Curtis, were on their way to Glendale Saturday from San Dimas in an automobile, when they were run into by a motor truck while passing through Monrovia. Both car and truck, though somewhat damaged, were able to proceed on their own power. Mrs. M. B. Curtis, whose home is in San Dimas, suffered the fracture of an arm and injuries to her back which it is hoped are not serious. Mrs. Fred S. Curtis and her two children, who have recently been the guests of Mrs. Nichols, were practically uninjured. As soon as Mrs. Nichols received news of the accident she went to San Dimas and remained until Tuesday morning. When she left Mrs. M. B. Curtis was quite comfortable and was, she hoped, out of all danger.

John McBratney, proprietor of the Linen Store, is taking a vacation from merchandising and at the same time endeavoring to do some work in food production. In company with Dewey Nickerson, formerly of Burbank, he assisted in the planting of a crop of beans on land east of Ontario. Mr. Nickerson is on the draft list and has been called, but the local Exemption Board of the Ontario district insisted that he should not be entrained until he had been given opportunity to harvest the fine crop of grain he has raised, which is nearing maturity. While waiting for that to ripen he will plant the beans.

In company with a large delegation of Glendale music lovers, Mr. and Mrs. F. McG. Kelley attended the Ellis club concert at Trinity Auditorium Tuesday evening, at which Mrs. Katherine Shank of this city was a soloist. They report that she was in splendid voice and her artistic numbers were received with such enthusiasm that Glendale patrons were immensely proud of their townswoman. There was an intermission between the two parts of the program, during which a patriotic address on behalf of the Liberty Loan was made. Mrs. Kelley states that the Ellis club is about to depart from its policy of many years standing to give no concerts, and is announcing a Red Cross benefit concert at Clune's Auditorium May 12th, which will be a big affair.

SPLENDID PROGRAM

The three-act comedy entitled "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," which is to be given Thursday and Friday evenings of this week in the social hall of the First M. E. church, is a play that every man, woman and child will enjoy. The cast of eleven characters has been working hard for the past two months. Jacob Fink supervised the making and painting of the scenery for the play. Many thanks are due Miss Terry, dramatic instructor at the High School, for her assistance in putting on the finishing touches to the acting. If you liked "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," of "Amarilly of Clothesline Alley," you will like this play. There will be good music and nothing is being left undone to make it a successful entertainment. You can't afford to miss it. Tickets to the general public are on sale at the Glendale Book Store, 413 Brand boulevard, also at the H. & A. Stationery Store, 324 Brand boulevard. Reservations at the Glendale Book Store only. Time, 8 o'clock.

LIBERTY LOAN SALES

The Liberty Loan teams of the Glendale public schools and the Women's Liberty Loan committees have been doing excellent work, as shown by reports which have been filed at the Loan headquarters on Brand boulevard. The figures there recorded show that sales have been made as follows:

Union High School, 50 sales aggregating	$4,000.00
Grammar Schools, 64 sales aggregating	4,300.00
Women's Committee, 109 sales, aggregating	15,800.00

BROADWAY P.-T. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Broadway P.-T. A. will be held Thursday at 3:15 p. m. The afternoon will be devoted to domestic science with particular attention given to the using of substitute cereals and flours in place of wheat. All mothers interested in this subject are urged to be present.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

Mrs. Donald Bennett of 228 Mira Loma avenue entertained with a very pretty evening function for her sister, Miss Blanche Shea, of 308 South Brand boulevard (Tropico district), at which the engagement of the guest of honor to Frank Starr, a former resident of this city and neighbor of Miss Shea, but who is now in Montana. About twenty young women, special friends of Miss Shea, were guests. Games furnished the entertainment of the evening and a dainty luncheon was served about 11 p. m., when announcement was made and congratulations received. Miss Shea is one of the most popular young ladies of the city, with a host of friends, particularly in the southern section. They are desolated at a hint that she may be transported to Montana, and hope the fortunate man may be persuaded to return to his old home.

Miss Shea is a prominent and valued member of the Pythian Sisters, was one of the organizers of the Round Table Girls, belongs to the Philathea class and other organizations of the Presbyterian Church, and would be greatly missed should she go elsewhere to make her home. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Lila Shea, Mrs. James Kier, Mrs. Lucile Ramsey and Mrs. Shea and Miss Scott of Inglewood. The guest list included Mrs. William Cox, Misses Harriet Myers, Carrie Stone, Olive Moffatt, Shirley Moffat, Dorothy Hobbs, Ruth Rider, Gladys Hamilton, Essie Hamilton, Amy Miller, Rose Virden, Mesdames Noble Ripley, Fred Spear, Frank Cook, Hugh McClellan, Glen Craig, William Huber of Los Angeles, Richard Kier of Los Angeles.

P.-T. A. FEDERATION MEETING

The regular meeting of the Glendale Federation Parent-Teacher Association was held on Monday, April 15th, in the library of the Intermediate School at 2:15 p. m. Mrs. Arthur Brown, chairman, presided for the first time since her illness and spoke of her sincere appreciation of the kindness and thoughtfulness shown by the women in their attitude to her and the association during her enforced absence.

Mrs. Opal Greenwalt made her report on the Country Store, which called forth applause.

Supervisor R. D. White announced benefits, one for Red Cross Chapter and one for the Junior Red Cross. Of the latter, four benefit film performances will be given at intervals of two weeks, using educational films on the life of Lincoln, and he appealed for the patronage of the community.

Prof. Moyse spoke on the different phases of war work for the coming year. The dominant note being, as he stated: What can the schools do to help "Win the War"?

Mrs. Hartley Shaw announced the art exhibit of the High School, which will be open to all interested Thursday afternoon and evening, Friday morning and Saturday afternoon.

Announcement was also made that on the coming Saturdays the collection of magazines, papers, etc., for the Red Cross would be made in the district west of Brand boulevard.

Splendid reports were given by the various chairmen and Mrs. A. A. Barton again appealed for conservation of wheat.

The salute to the flag, led by Mrs. Adelaide Imler, Patriotic Chairman, was participated in by all present.

EVA DANIELS, Press Secretary.

GLENDALE BOWLERS WIN

The match between the bowling team of the Elks Lodge of Glendale and the team of the Santa Monica Lodge which came off at the Elks Club House in this City Monday evening, was a most interesting and closely drawn contest in which victory finally rested with the home team, which scored 2518 against 2321 made by the Santa Monica players. Of the three games played, Glendale won the two first and Santa Monica the third. The score in detail follows:

YOUR WAR GARDEN

must do its bit this year in a big way. Because the Allies, and our boys "over there," need the production from the big farms—need all that we can send them. Your war garden must be planted so that there will be no guess work about results. It must be planted economically and efficiently. It must be a better garden than ever before.

Pakro Seedtape will help you to have a better, a more efficient garden. It is the scientific way of planting. The seeds are evenly and accurately spaced in a thin paper tape. And a whole row is planted at a time, resulting in straight rows of evenly spaced plants. Thinning out is practically eliminated.

Pakro loose seeds are the same Quality Seeds that are in the tape. These seeds are thoroughly tested and selected from the very best stock. A Pakro Garden, either Pakro Seedtape or Pakro Loose Seeds, is a successful garden. Your dealer has over 118 varieties of Pakro Seedtape and Seeds. Order your seeds to-day.

This Home Garden Book is written by Mr. E. L. D Seymour, associate editor of the "Garden Magazine" and "Country Life in America." It is bound in board, 48 pages, and profusely illustrated in color. It is a text-book of the garden. It tells in simple terms how to plan your garden and how and when to plant. ¶ Write to-day to the American Seedtape Company, 365 Ogden Street, Newark, New Jersey for a copy of this book. SUPERVISORS CHANGE WEEKLY CALENDAR

Acting on the suggestion of Chairman John J. Hamilton, the board of supervisors recently decided to meet, until further notice, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, making it possible to secure board action on any question at any time on twenty-four hours' notice, and enabling the supervisors to hold weekly conferences with department heads with a view to co-ordinating all county activities. Because of this change, Chairman Hamilton's "district day" has been changed for the present from Friday to Thursday. On this day, once a week, Mr. Hamilton visits points in his district requiring special attention.

BRAHM VAN DEN BERG

ELKS AUDITORIUM
Friday Evening, April 19, 1918

Elks' Auditorium, Friday evening this week, one of the world's greatest pianists, Everyone invited to hear him. Piano students should make a special effort to grasp this great opportunity, and the musical people of Glendale will be greatly pleased to know that Mr. Van den Berg will give this piano recital Friday evening at the Elks' Auditorium. We are printing a few of his press notices. Tomorrow we will print the masterly program he will render Friday evening at 8 p. m. Last year at Trinity Auditorium, Los Angeles, he played the most difficult program ever played in America. We want you to hear Mr. Van den Berg, and Mr. Van den Berg, realizing war times, has placed the price of admission at fifty cents, children 25 cents.

"To play Beethoven with that clearness and finesse with which his music should be treated is a privilege reserved for the few. It takes the understanding of the perfection of grace that belongs to the classic line. Brahm van den Berg, the virtuoso of the piano, convinced a large audience of his superior discernment in this direction yesterday at his recital. Mr. van den Berg is the possessor of a remarkable technical equipment, and he uses it with a striking effect. Even in such numbers as the 'Revolutionary Etude,' by Chopin, he played in the group of that composer's work, he declined to choose the original easier way of playing the closing phrase, but rather the invented octave ending. This is just a sample of how his technical prowess will not be held in leash. Mr. Van den Berg's work is absolutely free from mush. He says what he has to say in vigorous, straightforward fashion. His dexterity and skill in the management of the instrument compel admiration."—Los Angeles Times.

WHY WE ARE AT WAR WITH GERMANY

By
EPHRAIM DOUGLASS ADAMS
Executive Head, History Department Leland Stanford Junior University

"The object of this war is to deliver the free peoples of the world from the menace and the actual power of a vast military establishment controlled by an irresponsible government, which, having secretly planned to dominate the world, proceeded to carry out the plan without regard either to the sacred obligations of treaty or the long-established practices and long-cherished principles of international action and honor; . . . This power is not the German people. It is the ruthless master of the German people. . . . It is our business to see to it that the history of the rest of the world is no longer left to its handling."—President Wilson, August 27, 1917.

TRAITORS TO OUR DEMOCRACY

The general definition of a traitor is one "who gives aid and comfort to the enemy." This is usually applied to direct action, as in the Oklahoma movement in opposition to the draft, or the encouragement of draft evasions, or when an American citizen reveals our war plans to Germany.

Such acts constitute direct treason; but there is a kind of indirect treason, much harder to define and combat, yet often far more dangerous to our country and the success of the war than direct treason. Before the war there were in this country many social, political, or humanitarian movements on foot, all of which were radical (that is to say, advocates of change) in their programs. Such, for example, were the Socialists, the Land Tax reformers, the Pacifists. But all of these asserted faith in the democratic principle in government and wished to gain their ends by converting our democracy. Most of the adherents of these various movements have recognized that this democracy of ours having entered upon war, must be supported — that special programs must, for the moment, be subordinated to the one great object of winning the war. But there are some persons so feeble-minded or so incapable of grasping the world importance of this war, that they talk and write things calculated to weaken our efficiency in war. These people are traitors to our democracy.

The whole matter is summed up by the Single Tax Journal of California (Everyman, November, 1917): "Wilson's business now is to win the war, and win it soon. . . . The radical press should stop knocking him and attend to its own business—which is to create the democracy that the Allies are to make the world safe for. To fight war, after it is on, is bootless. To hinder its quick, effective prosecution is, of course, traitorous."

But there are other methods than radical speech which can "hinder the quick, effective prosecution of the war." Labor organizations, long engaged in a struggle for better labor conditions, may see in the existence of war an opportunity to secure their demands. If such demands are unusual and if they would have been unjustified had there been no war—if labor seeks to take special advantage of the existence of war, then such labor is traitorous. It hinders the successful prosecution of the war. For the most part, labor organizations have not sought such special advantage, but a few have done so, and in public estimation they stand as traitors to our democracy.

Business men—men with capital—are not free from the imputation of traitorous conduct. That man who places his own business interests above the interests of the nation in this war is traitorously minded. If he deliberately seeks profit at the expense of national efficiency (as in the sale of undergrade materials to the government) he should be punished, not simply as a cheat, but as a traitor. This is the rare exception. It is the almost unconscious exaltation of his own business interests, however, that makes the average business man dangerously liable to traitorous conduct. There is no such thing as "business as usual" during a war.

Finally, the question of honest tax returns and of subscribing to war loans is directly and positively a question of loyalty or treason. There is no need to argue the point that the man who conceals his resources, or makes dishonest tax returns is a traitor in intent and deed. What about lending to the government? Such lending means usually a slight sacrifice. But the war can not be won without sacrifices—and great sacrifices. If a man has money which he can lend, and if he does not lend, he is traitorous, for he hinders the quick and effective prosecution of the war.

Such traitors may indeed never be brought to punishment, even though they deserve it as much as the radical Pacifist who argues against this war, or covertly belittles the honesty of the purposes of our Allies. But the radical who sneers, and the man with money who can lend and does not, are alike traitorous to our country, to our faith in democracy, and to our objects in this war. And we, who do make sacrifices, know them for the traitors that they are.

This is the ninth of a series of ten articles by Professor Adams.

IF YOU KNEW

that saving the life of an American Sammie from being gassed by the Huns depended on your buying 48 War Savings Stamps at 25 cents each wouldn't you be willing to make some sacrifice to prevent such a calamity?

—Or, if you realized that some American soldier would be deprived of a rifle unless you bought 78 stamps, or that he couldn't be furnished 100 cartridges without your taking 20 stamps; or that he might be mortally wounded because of lack of a steel helmet that could be purchased from proceeds of 12 stamps—wouldn't you stretch a point to obtain this equipment for him?

OF COURSE YOU WOULD!

RETURNING FLOUR

The Food Administration at San Francisco reports as follows:

Thousands of patriotic citizens of America are voluntarily returning to the government their flour in excess of the twenty-four pounds allowed each family of four, according to reports received by the United States Administration for California and made public today.

These contributions have been voluntary and have amounted to thousands of pounds of flour and wheat. The householders, as soon as they learned of the new wheat needs of the Allies, began turning their excess quantities into the stores.

According to Administrator Brooks of Oklahoma Panhandle county alone sent in 1500 sacks of flour to various stores, and several other counties have reported that the stores are simply being flooded with returned flour.

In Grimes county, Texas, the people have voluntarily agreed to use no flour until the next harvest, and are already turning over at cost to the stores one carload of wheat flour and other carloads are already on the road. These loaded cars are being diverted to an Atlantic port by the U. S. Food Administration for immediate shipment to the Allies.

In Ohio "total abstainers" clubs are being organized, the members of which pledge themselves to refrain from the use of all wheat products. The movement is spreading rapidly throughout the state.

Reports from Arkansas show that amounts far in excess of three million pounds of hoarded flour have been returned. The Food Administration has arranged with the Wheat Export Company, the purchasers for the Allies, to take over the entire results of this Arkansas drive for immediate shipment to Europe.

While it is impossible to ship some of the flour in the original packages in which it is returned, the Food Administration has made arrangements to have it put in circulation and an equal amount, properly packed for export, shipped from the mills direct.

All of the flour thus released and turned back to the government will be paid for on a fair price basis, and will be immediately available to the Allies.

GOVERNMENT NEEDS BOOKKEEPERS

So urgent is the Government's need for bookkeepers that civil service examinations to fill positions of this character will be held throughout the United States each Tuesday until further notice. Women as well as men are eligible, announces the "War Digest."

Two classes of examinations are announced. A grammar-school education or its equivalent is required of applicants for either class, with the further stipulation that those who wish to take the bookkeeper-typewriter examination must have had at least six months' experience in bookkeeping, and those who would undertake the clerk-bookkeper examination, one year's experience in clerical work, six months of which must have been in bookkeeping. The vacancies to be filled from the register obtained from these examinations are in the departmental service at Washington and offer entrance salaries of $1,000 a year.

These examinations are open not only to all citizens of the United States but also to subjects of allied nations who are otherwise qualified for the positions offered.

CAN'T MEET ORDINANCE

Both the Pacific Electric and the Los Angeles railway companies claim that orders for girder rails they have placed with the manufacturers during the past two years are not being delivered on account of war conditions. A Los Angeles city ordinance requires that girder rails be installed when the old rails in our streets are worn out. The railway companies say this is impossible at the present time, but as they have in stock rails known as "T" rails, they would like to have the city ordinance modified to permit of this being done. As the directors of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce are much interested in an improvement on Franklin avenue, wherein the railway company has to pave its portion of the street and lay new rails, the matter is under consideration.

There is no greater satisfaction.
